

INVASIVE PLANT SPECIES & THEIR REMEDIATION FOR HARVESTERS & LANDOWNERS

SCHEDULE

WHEN & WHERE

Liberty, ME - 10/8/2020

8:30 AM - 1:00 PM

Lake St. George State Park, 278 Belfast Augusta Rd., Liberty, ME 04949

Class size limited to 25 participants.

SPEAKER SESSION:

What are invasive plants & why are they are harmful?

Why be prepared & take precautions?

How to identify common invasive species.

How to avoid spreading them: BMP's

Resources to help harvesters & landowners

FIELD VISITS:

Visits to several local sites to identify invasive species, review removal process and what harvesters and landowners can do to STOP the spread.

STOP THE SPREAD!!!

Invasive plant species harm the forests and land values in Maine. Learn to identify some of the most common invasive species in this hands-on workshop.

- Learn how to address this threat to the forest resource
- Gain skills helpful to clients/landowners
- Grow your business by offering services on invasive plants

- Participants should wear long pants and closed toe shoes. Please bring transportation, water and snacks.

WORKSHOP EDUCATIONAL CREDITS

Education Credit for:

- Master Logger Companies = 4 hrs
- QLP = Half day / CLP = Recertification
- SAF/LPF= 4.5 CAT1
- BPC = 3 hrs

FOREST SERVICE

Registration Required: email jessica@maineloggers.com or call 688-8195 opt. 1

NATURAL AREAS